ARTICLE 18. RECONSIDERATION

§ 13111. Filing of Appeal.

(a) An appeal of a local government's decision on a coastal development permit application (or local government equivalent) may be filed by an applicant or any aggrieved person who exhausted local appeals, or any two (2) members of the Commission. The appeal must contain the following information:

The appeal must contain the following information:

- (1) the name and address of the permit applicant and appellant;
- (2) the date of the local government action;
- (3) a description of the development;
- (4) the name of the governing body having jurisdiction over the project area;
- (5) the names and addresses of all persons who submitted written comments or who spoke and left his or her name at any public hearing on the project, where such information is available;
- (6) the names and addresses of all other persons known by the appellant to have an interest in the matter on appeal;
- (7) the specific grounds for appeal;
- (8) a statement of facts on which the appeal is based;
- (9) a summary of the significant question raised by the appeal.

The filing of the notice of appeal should also contain information which the local government has specifically requested or required.

(b) For an appeal to the Commission by an applicant pursuant to Public Resources Code sections 30602 or 30603(a)(5) of a denial of a coastal development permit application, the applicant shall submit a filing fee in accordance with the provisions of section 13055(b)(5)(B).

~~(b)~~ (c) The appeal must be received in the Commission district office with jurisdiction over the local government on or before the tenth (10th) working day after receipt of the notice of the permit decision by the executive director.

~~(e)~~ (d) The appellant shall notify the applicant, any persons known to be interested in the application, and the local government of the filing of the appeal. Notification shall be by delivering a copy of the completed Notice of Appeal to the domicile(s), office(s), or mailing address(es) of said parties. In any event, such notification shall be by such means as may reasonably advise said parties of the pendency of the appeal. Unwarranted failure to perform such notification may be grounds for dismissal of the appeal by the Commission.
