

Coastal Commission September Meeting September 12-14, 2012

Q Where is Caspar?

A Caspar is 160 miles (200 kilometers) north of San Francisco on the scenic Mendocino Coast, halfway between Fort Bragg and Mendocino. Driving directions to the Caspar Community Center can be found here.

<http://www.casparcommons.org/Maps/WhCaspar.php>

Where is Caspar?

from the south

Most folks approach Caspar from the south, heading northwest off of US Highway 101 on Highway 128 just north of Cloverdale, then north along the coast on California's scenic coastline Highway 1. Before reaching Caspar, they pass Mendocino ... for directions from Mendocino, see below.

from the north

Others come from the north, turning southwest on Highway 1 at from US Highway 101 in Leggett, and winding through redwoods and along the coast to Fort Bragg ... for directions from Fort Bragg, see below.

from Fort Bragg

Head south on Highway 1 from Fort Bragg about 5 miles. Pass Jughandle State Reserve and continue up the hill. At the top of the hill, turn right (west) on Caspar Street.

from Mendocino

Continue north from Mendocino on Highway 1. At the bottom of a long hill you will cross Caspar Creek bridge. At the next left turn, turn west on Caspar Street.

At the bottom of Caspar Street, turn right on Caspar Road and drive about 100 feet. Caspar Community Center is the white schoolhouse in the field on your right (east).

